Sung to the tune of "Small Town" by John Mellencamp

Pig Camp

Well I wasn't born in a pig camp
Got invited to a pig camp
Now I'm part of a pig camp
A fine swine community

Got lots of friends in the pig camp
Brought still more friends to the pig camp
My piglet's in a pig camp
Creating lifelong memories

Dr. Ed-ucated in a pig camp
Taught the fear of Earl in a pig camp
Tasted all sorts of things in this pig camp
Please bring another round for me

Well I've stood up in a pig camp
And I've turned around in a pig camp
Yes it's true that I've bent over in a pig camp

And all the pigs did thank me

No I cannot forget to where it is that I drive to
I cannot forget the pigs I go to see
Yeah, I can be myself here in this pig camp
And I can even sing silly parodies

Got nothing against a hotel
One year was so wet I thought
It could be nice in a hotel
But my tent is in a pig camp
Right now that's good enough for me

Well I wasn't born in a pig camp
Some have been conceived in a pig camp
Good day to die in a pig camp
And that's probably where they'll sharpie me
